Beacon 23 consists of 5 parts, originally issued as a serial, and that's pretty much how it reads. Although the story was continuous, each part had a different feel, and separate aspect to it. The 5 pieces did fit together, but the end game is not realized until the final piece is in place.

An incredibly intimate story of a man on the edge of both reason and civilisation, Beacon 23 is deftly written and quite unique. The straightforward storyline allows the psychological landscape to take centre stage, and the moments of humour and backstory are brilliantly handled. Engaging and thoroughly enjoyable.

This story is about Beacon 23's keeper and his struggle with both his inner and some outer demons. This is where we first meet Digger. The keeper of Beacon 23.
