By Marc Agronin, MD. One point I make in my book How We Age: A Doctor's Journey into the Heart of Growing Old (Da Capo Lifelong Books, 2011) is that there is no magic cure for aging - no pills, potions, or fountain-of-youth strategies that will restore our youth. But this fact does not mean that there isn't a lot we do, regardless of age, to improve both mental and physical well-being as we age and best capture all of the advantages of growing older.

The End of Old Age (January 16, 2018) By Marc E. Agronin MD. In The End of Old Age: Living a Longer, More Purposeful Life Dr. Agronin examines the way we talk about age and provides a new rubric for our conversations. Steering away from "Fountain of Youth" delusions, Dr. Agronin introduces two new topics: Age points, which "expose a gap between the challenges or demands of a life event and our existing strengths, values, skills, and connections...and make us into more developed and ...
