The Darkest Powers series is suppose to be a trilogy but it leaves a number of unanswered questions, however I believe there is going to be another novel released in the series, which is great. The Reckoning doesn't finish on a cliffhanger and has a really lovely ending however you are definately left wondering about the loose ends.

The Reckoning is the final installment to Kelley Armstrong's Darkest Powers Trilogy. If you haven't read The Summoning and The Awakening, I would advise you not to read this installment until you have. The Darkest Powers' world is constantly evolving and Armstrong doesn't waste her time catching readers up to what they should already know, which I have to admit, is part of what I love about her writing.

A brilliant last book in the Darkest Powers trilogy. It answers all the questions we had regarding the first two books but left some of the bigger questions open for the Darkness Rising trilogy which starts with The Gathering, released in April 2011. It's the pacing, again, that make this such a great read.
